THE GARDEN HAS SECRETS

The Missing Moonflower

SPRING CASE 01 / AFTER THE BELL

At the closing bell, Mara saw someone lift the moonflower pot from its shelf.
The pot hid their face. Exactly one other person was in her room at that moment.
Use the six clues to find where everyone was when the bell rang.

CONSERVATORY FLOOR PLAN

HOW TO SOLVE

Place each person once, one per row and one per column.
Thick walls divide rooms.
Exactly one other person was in Mara's room at the bell.
Mats and stools are open.
Racks are blocked. "Beside" a rack means sharing a side, not a corner.
One row south: next row down.
West: any column to the left.
